

Data Protection Statement

SYZYGY AG is highly committed to protecting your privacy. The information below provides details of the nature, extent and purpose of collecting, processing and using your personal data while you are using our website. SYZYGY AG collects, processes and uses personal data exclusively according to this data privacy statement and within the scope of statutory authorization.

If you need further information or have any further questions concerning data protection, feel free to contact us through datenschutz@syzygy.de .

What is Personal Data?

In Germany, the meaning of "personal data" is defined in the German Federal Data Protection Act. This Act defines personal data as any information concerning the personal or material circumstances of an identified or identifiable individual. This includes information such as your name, your address, your telephone number or your date of birth.

Anonymised Data Collection and Processing

Unless stated otherwise in the following sections, we never collect, process or use any personal data when people visit the pages on our website. When you access our website, particular information is transmitted by a standard procedure, such as the IP address, type and version of the web browser used, the operating system used, the website where you came from and the time of visiting the website. We will analyse these data only statistically in order to prevent errors and to improve our services. We do not use this information to identify a single User.

Contact

We will collect your personal data only if you disclose this information, e.g. if you contact us via email, by mail or telephone. Your personal data will only be used for the purpose for which you transferred it to us. Of course, you can revoke your consent for the future. For this purpose, please contact us through datenschutz@syzygy.de .

No Data Transfer to Third Parties

No personal data is transferred to third parties except where this is necessary according to the law. Given that external companies will process your personal data, we take all necessary legal, technical and organisational measures to make sure that these companies comply with the provisions of Data Protection Law.

Investor Relations News and Reports

If you wish to receive an annual or quarterly report or news concerning our company you can send us a message via our contact form. To answer your inquiry we need some information from you.

Boxes which are not essential for the communication, are marked as optional. This optional information improves the handling of the contacting process and helps us to determine the specifics of your inquiry. The information given in this context is given explicitly on a voluntary basis and with your consent. By adding information concerning communication channels (e.g. telephone number), you consent to the fact that we will inform you about the requested subject matters via the given communication channel.

If you have given your consent to receive news by email we employ the double opt-in method for the registration for the newsletter. In other words, after you have registered for the service and informed us about your e-mail address, you will receive an e-mail in return from us, containing a link that you must use to confirm your registration. Your registration and confirmation will be recorded. The newsletter will not be sent until this has been done. This procedure is used to ensure that only you yourself can register with the newsletter service under the specified e-mail address. It is possible to unsubscribe at any time. To unsubscribe, please send an email to ... or use the corresponding link at the end of each email.

Of course, you can revoke your consent for the future. For this purpose, please contact us through datenschutz@syzygy.de .

Career

You can apply for a job at our company electronically. If you apply for a job, your data will exclusively be used for the handling of your application and not transferred to third parties.

Cookies

Our website uses cookies. Cookies are text files saved on the user's computer when visiting a website on the Internet. We use so called 'session cookies', which, depending on the settings in your browser, will be deleted when the browser is closed. We also use cookies that are used once a session is over ('trans-session cookies'). These Cookies serve in particular to make our service more user-friendly and effective. Thanks to these files, it is possible, for instance, that you will be provided with information specifically tailored to your interests on the webpage currently being viewed. The sole purpose is to adjust our services to the users' wishes as best as we can and to make for you the use of our website as convenient as possible. You can prevent the use of cookies by not permitting them in your browser. You can change the relevant settings in your browser.

Website Optimization Tools

We use products and features provided by Google Inc. (1600 Amphitheatre Parkway, Mountain View, CA 94043, USA; „Google“).

- Google Tag Manager

For reasons of transparency please note that that we use the Google Tag Manager. The Google Tag Manager itself does not collect personal data. It facilitates the integration and management of our tags. Tags are small code elements which serve to measure traffic and visitor behaviour, to detect the impact of online advertising or to test and optimize our websites. For further information about the Google Tag Manager visit:

<https://www.google.com/intl/de/tagmanager/use-policy.html>.

- Google Analytics

This website uses the analytics service Google Analytics. Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyse how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States.

We draw your attention to the fact that Google Analytics is supplemented by the code "gat._anonymizeIp();" on this website to guarantee the anonymised collection of IP addresses (so called IP-masking).

Because of the activation of the IP anonymization, Google will truncate/anonymize the last octet of the IP address for Member States of the European Union as well as for other parties to the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases, the full IP address is sent to and shortened by Google servers in the USA. On behalf of the website provider Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage to the website provider. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. However, please note that if you do this, you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. Furthermore you can prevent Google's collection and use of data (cookies and IP address) by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available under <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en-GB>.

You can refuse the use of Google Analytics by clicking on the following link. An opt-out cookie will be set on the computer, which prevents the future collection of your data when visiting this website: Disable Google Analytics)

Further information concerning the terms and conditions of use and data privacy can be found at <http://www.google.com/analytics/terms/gb.html> or at https://www.google.de/intl/en_uk/policies/.

This website contains links to other external websites. If you use any of the external links, you will be directed to a website which is not covered by our privacy policy.

Data Security

We have taken extensive technical and operational precautions in order to protect personal data stored by us from unauthorized access and misuse. Our security procedures are monitored regularly and updated according to the technological progress. Our staff is trained regularly and is committed to data secrecy.

Your Rights

Upon written request, we will be glad to inform you pursuant to our obligation by law if and which personal data of yours are stored with us. Under the conditions of the provisions of the German Federal Data Protection Act, you may request correction, blocking and deletion of such data, unless these requests conflict with statutory time limits for storage.
